MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Baltimore Journal of Land and Development shall serve the legal community as a nonprofit organization established under the auspices of the University of Baltimore School of Law. The Journal of Land and Development shall be a scholarly, interdisciplinary legal journal, whose primary purpose shall be to promote legal scholarship and the educational purposes of the University of Baltimore School of Law.

The Journal of Land and Development shall achieve this purpose by focusing on dynamic and contemporary topics and by publishing in depth legal and policy analysis on the range of issues related to land and development. Topics covered shall include, but are not limited to, urban, suburban and rural issues involving land use, environmental preservation, state and local government, economic development and redevelopment, community development, real estate transactions and finance, property, civil rights, human rights, and civil liberties.

By publishing timely articles in these areas we will stimulate the academic excellence of each member of the journal so that each may enjoy a lifetime of honorable and professional service within the legal community, while providing practitioners and academia with cutting edge legal research and information about this expanding area of the law.
