The University of Baltimore Journal of Land and Development is one of the few national legal journals that focuses on property and environmental law. The publication covers urban, suburban and rural issues involving land use, environmental preservation, economic development, and community development. Additionally, the publication covers real estate transactions and matters concerning finance, property, civil rights, human rights, civil liberties, and state and local government. The Journal is published in digital format with major electronic sources such as LexisNexis, Westlaw, HeinOnline, Bloomberg Law, and Scholar Works. Consequently, the Journal reaches a wide audience and is read by a number of legal professionals.

Articles covering legal developments in areas of property, land use, construction, urban development, environmental law and related fields will be considered for publication. Given the Journal's cross-disciplinary focus, the publication requirements are flexible in regard to the length and topic of the articles chosen for publication. The Journal's priority is to promote legal scholarship and stimulate academic excellence in areas of legal practice. Thus, there is a no minimum page requirement for submissions and our selection process is based solely on the quality of the submission. Articles must be formatted to legal publication standards and must include footnotes with legal citations.

Please submit articles via email to JLD@ubalt.edu. Articles submitted for consideration are encouraged to be submitted in .doc format. For an article to be considered for publication, at least one submitting author must be a legal professional.

Thank you very much for reading this issue and, if you decide you would like to be considered for publication, we look forward to reading your submission!

Sincerely,
