NOW WHAT?

"Kluger-Kripner Kreation"

You've murdered your wife. You couldn't take it anymore, could you? The incessant nagging. The endless questions. The shrill screaming. Finally, you snapped. At last it's over. . . . or is it?

You NEED an attorney, badly. But how to select one? You're facing the most important decision of your life (and with the death penalty re-enacted in thirty-seven states, perhaps the last). DON'T blow it. You want a law firm with years of experience in criminal justice, a firm that has handled shadier characters than you and had them back on the streets in three months time. You want HOWARD, MICHAELS, AND LAWRENCE.

Whatever your defense—insanity, justifiable homicide, constitutional loophole—we can handle it. And our rates? Surprisingly affordable . . . we'll be with you through every step of the appeals process for only $3000 plus the exclusive screen rights to your life story. (With, of course, complete artistic freedom to portray you as calculating fiend, courageous martyr, or anything in between.)

So REMEMBER, in your next tight spot, call HOWARD, MICHAELS, AND LAWRENCE. You won't get a second chance.

Howard, Michaels, and Lawrence

"The thing is sufficiently known, and it ill becomes a man to set out his virtues. But try this, and do it boldly, and never doubt of clients. A modest lawyer!—A silent woman!—A paradox in nature."

—Wilson, John
The Cheats, Act I, Scene IV
