To the Maryland Legal Community:

The editorial board of the University of Baltimore Law Forum proudly presents the second issue of the 2011-2012 academic year. Each year, the Law Forum staff tirelessly works to provide its readers with insightful articles and informative recent developments, and this edition is no exception. This is my final edition as Editor-in-Chief and I want to congratulate the entire staff of the 2011-2012 academic year on a job well done. It has been a privilege to serve Law Forum, and I look forward to reading many more quality Law Forum editions in the future. My door remains open to my colleagues and all those who subscribe to Law Forum - a truly unique piece of Maryland legal scholarship.

I would like to thank all the members of the editorial board for their hard work, patience, and diligence. I would also like to thank Professor Richard Bourne for his guidance and advice during the making of this fall edition. Professor Bourne has been a powerful force in keeping Law Forum focused and on-track. His guidance and wisdom allowed the editorial board to navigate through any challenges we faced and, ultimately, produce this excellent spring edition. Finally, I want to thank our Associate Editors and Staff Editors whose efforts shine through in the quality of this final work product.

Kind Regards,

Gary L. Stapleton, Jr.
