

1L Research Assessment: Session 2

Before 11/17/2016, check to make sure you can see “1L Research Assessment Session 2 (Fall 2016)” under the “My Courses” page on TWEN. If you do not see the class, please email Savanna Nolan (snolan@ubalt.edu) immediately.

Starting the Quiz Portion

Beginning on Friday at 1pm, the Open Research Question and the Multiple Choice quiz will be visible under the “Assignments and Quizzes” portion of your “1L Research Assessment Session 2 (Fall 2016)” class:

The screenshot displays the TWEN interface for the '1L Research Assessment Session 2 (Fall 2016)' class. The top navigation bar includes 'Westlaw', 'Practical Law', 'TWEN', 'Store', and 'Resources'. The user is logged in as Savanna Nolan, University of Baltimore, with 99+ notifications. The breadcrumb trail shows the path: Westlaw > TWEN > Law Library (Nolan Test) > Grade Book > Assignments & Quizzes. The 'Assignments & Quizzes' section shows the current TWEN time as Monday, November 14, 2016 at 10:38 AM. The user's name, Savanna Nolan, is displayed, along with a link to 'Manage Anonymous I.D.'s'. The table below lists the assignments:

Honor Code

Honor Code required for Savanna Nolan

Note: Your professor is using an honor code. Please review the text below and choose either 'Accept' or 'Decline'. You must accept the honor code to continue with your submission.

I pledge that I have neither given nor received assistance on this assignment, and that my submission is entirely my own work.

I affirm that I have read the Honor Code and that I understand my rights and responsibilities as set forth in the Code and I solemnly affirm that I will at all times proceed fairly and honorably as a scholar and future practitioner of the law, that I will support, uphold and conduct myself in accordance with the Honor Code and that I will neither condone nor tolerate cheating, plagiarism or falsification or any other violation of the Honor Code of the School of Law.

To complete this assessment, you may consult your class materials, including your textbook(s) and class notes. You may not, however, consult other students, lawyers, librarians, or legal research providers (such as Lexis or Westlaw representatives or hotlines). Note that if you consult your class materials to answer the questions, you should keep in mind the time constraints of the assessment.

Once you have finished all of the questions, click the blue “Submit Quiz” button.

For the Open Research Question:

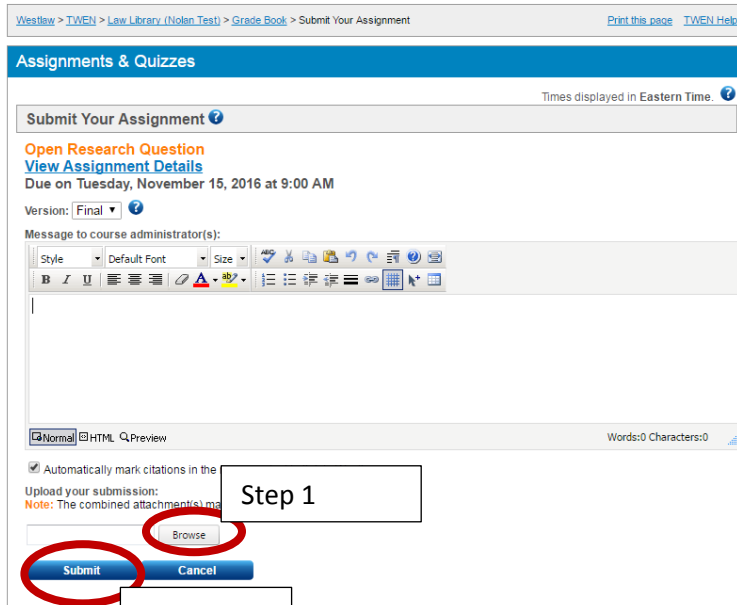

From the Quizzes and Assessments tab, click the hyperlinked text “Open Research Question” to see the question. Consider copying and pasting the text of the question to a Word document in case of some sort of internet snafu.

Assignment Name	Submitted	Version	Comments	Grade
Open Research Question Due: 11/15/2016 9:00 AM (Tue) Time until Due: 22 days, 22 hours, 21 minutes	No Submission			Not Released
Multiple Choice & True False Due: 6/15/2017 1:00 AM (Thu) Time until Due: 212 days, 14 hours, 21 minutes	No Submission			Not Released

Write your answers in a Word document and save the file using both your last name and the name of your ILS professor, for example “Nolan_Assessment_PostarILS.docx” for student Savanna Nolan in Professor Postar’s class.

From the “Assignments & Quizzes” page (image above), click the “submit” button. You will be taken to a

Click the gray “Browse” button and navigate to where you have saved your Word document on your computer. Wait for the file to upload, then click submit. If you have problems with the Word document uploading, you can, as an alternative, copy and paste your answers into the “Message to course administrators” box before hitting “Submit”.

YOU MAY ONLY SUBMIT THE OPEN RESEARCH QUESTIONS ONCE. MULTIPLE SUBMISSIONS ARE NOT ALLOWED.

Late submissions and the impact of the Assessment on your final grade are at the discretion of your ILS professor.
