Peter G. Angelos is a graduate of Eastern College and the University of Baltimore School of Law where he was valedictorian of his class. A practicing attorney in Maryland since 1961, he is the President and managing principal of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, a Professional Corporation. He is admitted to practice law in Maryland, Tennessee, and the District of Columbia and before the United States Tax Court, Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. During his 36 year career, Mr. Angelos has represented thousands of clients in products liability, personal injury, professional malpractice and other areas of complex civil litigation. He has also defended clients in significant criminal cases and achieved national recognition for his successful representation of clients as a plaintiffs attorney.

Presently he serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, Johns Hopkins University, Western Maryland College, the University of Baltimore, and also serves on the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law. Mr. Angelos also served as a member of the Baltimore City Council. He is also a member of the boards of the University of Maryland Foundation, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Saint Joseph's Hospital and the Grant-A-Wish Foundation.

Mr. Angelos has received Honorary Doctorate Degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College, and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the American Academy of Achievement, the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society and a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Mr. Angelos is the Chairman of the Board and CEO of the Baltimore Orioles since 1993 when he restored the team to local ownership. He was named Sportsman of the year by the New York Daily News in 1995.

The main law school building at the University of Baltimore School of Law is named in honor of Mr. Angelos' parents. His parents, John and Frances Angelos, who immigrated from Greece, were not able pursue a college education, but they instilled in their children a commitment to learning. The Law Center is named in their honor and in recognition of Peter Angelos' establishment of the John and Frances Law Scholarship Fund.

Peter Angelos and his wife, Georgia, reside in Baltimore City with their sons, John and Louis.
