The University of Baltimore comprises: (1) the Yale Gordon College of Arts and Sciences, which awards the B.A., B.S., M.A., M.S., and M.F.A. degrees in addition to graduate certificates; (2) the School of Law, which awards the Juris Doctorate, the LL.M. in Taxation, and the LL.M. in the Law of the United States degrees; (3) the Merrick School of Business, which awards the B.S., M.B.A., and M.S. degrees, as well as undergraduate and graduate certificates; and (4) the College of Public Affairs, which awards the B.A., B.S., M.A., M.S., M.P.A., and D.P.A. degrees, as well as undergraduate and graduate certificates. The University's classrooms, libraries, and social and administrative buildings are located in midtown Baltimore.

The University of Baltimore and its School of Law opened in 1925. On September 1, 1970, the University of Baltimore School of Law merged with and acquired what was previously known as the Mount Vernon School of Law of Eastern College, which was founded in 1935.

The University of Baltimore School of Law has both a day and an evening division. The day division offers a full-time, three-year program leading to the Juris Doctorate degree upon satisfactory completion of 87 semester hours of work. The evening division has a four-year Juris Doctorate degree program also requiring satisfactory completion of 87 semester hours. In addition, the School of Law offers an LL.M. in Taxation program and an LL.M. in the Law of the United States program.

The University of Baltimore is regionally accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. The School of Law is accredited by the American Bar Association and holds membership in the Association of American Law Schools.

In the winter term of 1971, the School of Law created the University of Baltimore Law Review. Editor in Chief Richard H. Mosse and Managing Editor Larry M. Polsky led a staff of nine founding members: Joseph L. Bocchini Jr., Vaughn C. Brennan, John P. Coale, Bruce W. Haupt, Michael J. Kananack, Gerald B. Lascher, Keith E. Mathews, Claudette A. Pelletier, and Paul W. Rosenbaum.

Today the University of Baltimore Law Review is an established scholarly legal journal, edited and published by students at the University of Baltimore School of Law under the direction of a student Editorial Board. The University of Baltimore Law Review has published forty-four volumes to date.
The University of Baltimore Law Review (ISSN: 0091-5440) is published three times a year. Subscriptions are available for $15.00 per year (plus $2.00 for foreign mailing), payable in advance. Members of the Maryland Bar Association are entitled to subscriptions for $10.00 per year, payable in advance.

Communications concerning subscriptions, business matters, and permission to reprint materials contained in the Law Review should be addressed to Business Editor, University of Baltimore Law Review, University of Baltimore School of Law, 1420 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21201-5779; 410-837-4489; or UBLawreview@ubalt.edu. Back issues can be ordered from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main St., Buffalo, NY 14209, 800-828-7571; they are available in electronic format through HeinOnline, http://heinonline.org.

Subscriptions are renewed automatically absent timely notice of termination. All notifications of change of address should include both the old address and the new address. Unless a claim is made for nonreceipt of the Law Review issue within six months after the mailing date, the Law Review cannot be responsible for supplying the issue without charge.

The Law Review invites the submission of articles. Manuscripts submitted for publication should conform to The Bluebook, A Uniform System of Citations (20th ed. 2015).

The views expressed in this volume are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policies or opinions of the Law Review, its editors and staff, or the University of Baltimore.

ATTENTION LAW REVIEW ALUMNI

In an ongoing effort to increase and facilitate communication between University of Baltimore Law Review alumni and current members of the journal, we ask that all alumni contact the University of Baltimore Law Review at UBLawreview@ubalt.edu and provide the following information: name, year(s) on Law Review, address, phone number, email address, and current employment.
